Blackout (Hugo Award Winner) by Connie Willis, Paperback ...

But in Connie Willis' Blackout, none of that was the case. Blackout wasn't a book that I didn't get ; it was just legitimately, objectively poor. It sounded so great, which was why I wanted to read it: an experienced sci-fi author writes a story about a group of Oxford historians in the year 2060 who regularly go back in time to observe first-hand the events of the past.
