Exit Utopia : architectural provocations, 1956-1976. This book, the outcome of an international conference held in Holland and titled "New Babylon: The Value of Dreaming the City of Tomorrow," unearths some neglected and poorly documented utopian design movements dating from 1956 to 1976. In doing so, it fills the gap in general public knowledge of the avant-garde architecture that existed between Modernism and Postmodernism and that today enjoys a worldwide revival among the younger ...
