Holocaust had actually "occurred" in the way that natural events like earthquakes and tidal waves occur. Small wonder that some revision ists insist that the camps are a figment of the Zionist imagination. With the publication of Approaches to Auschwitz, it won't be so easy to deny the reality of what was meant to be the Final Solution.

Approaches to Auschwitz: The Holocaust and Its Legacy ...

The bottom-up approach is a viewpoint on the causes of the Holocaust.. This approach is usually housed under a common debate in understanding the Holocaust, known as the functionalism versus intentionalism debate. Functionalists represent the argument that the decision to kill the Jews developed over time with a concept called "cumulative radicalization" (Hans Mommsen).
