Review originally posted at Rambblings From This Chick Burned by Sarah Morgan is the second Miller Sisters book, but can be read as a standalone. This is a short story and is only about 83 pages. Despite the length though, I really enjoyed this one. It was sexy and sweet, and had just the perfect amount of sexual tension.

I really enjoyed Morgan's first Cosmo Red Hot Read, Ripped. It was fun and entertaining, and I was definitely looking forward to Burned thinking that it would be much of the same. Unfortunately, this story fell a bit short for me. I did enjoy it, yes, but not nearly as much as Ripped. What I liked: Rosie... for the most part.

Burned (eBook, 2014) [WorldCat.org]

Burned is the second smokin' hot novella about the Miller Sisters from Sarah Morgan, who does a terrific job creating fun & flirty characters with a brain. Rosie and Hunter's chemistry was every bit as explosive as Hayley and Nico's from book one. Plus we get to read about one of my favorite tropes here: second chance romance.
