First Time Ians Story First

First Time adds gorgeous layering to Ian's character via family and spiritual elements and he is without a doubt the leading man in this book. Ian's character is not ego-driven, he's not a millionaire or some cocky bastard...he's a fifty-three year old, down-to-earth man who is generous, loyal, protective, and just an all-around great guy.

“Oh, you go first,” she insisted, biting her lower lip and never raising her eyes from her menu. Her bottom lip was full, and her lipstick shimmered; it would have been lovely to draw her expression, but there was no way I’d ever be able to capture the physical ache that simple, unconscious gesture made me feel.

Annie and Bill's house, the house Danny had grown up in, was a two-story bungalow with a claustrophobic interior, so it only took a few steps to join us in the dining room. Danny whipped his collar out of his shirt and popped a few buttons, groaning, “If it got any hotter out there, you could have baked the cherry pie on the sidewalk.”
