Hill people, also referred to as mountain people, is a general term for people who live in the hills and mountains. This includes all rugged land above 300 metres and all land above 2,500 metres elevation. The climate is generally harsh, with steep temperature drops between day and night. High winds, run-off from melting snow and rain cause high levels of erosion and thin, immature soils. Climate change is likely to place considerable stress on the mountain environment and the people who live th
