His Eyes Renee Carter

Renee Carters debut novel, His Eyes, was a fun, easy read. This story has an original plot and some great characters. I especially liked Chris, Tristan's younger, annoying-but-loveable brother.

But what his mother really wants is for someone his age to draw him out of the room in which he's locked himself and learn to live with his new situation. I liked these characters. I like the way they thought, I liked the way they spoke, and I liked the way they acted - even when they did things I really thought they shouldn't do.
