So going on from my freebie post, I read the teaser That Night but J.S & Helen Cooper which then of course made me NEED to read the full book, One Night Stand, and I don't think I was disappointed. Basically, you spend a lot of the book being confused as to why Xander (hero) is doing what he's doing (don't want to give away the plot toooo much).

One Night Stand begins this series in a most dramatic way! Alice challenges her best friend, Liv, to have a one night stand at the wedding they are attending. She laughs it off, but before she knows it, a handsome man is making a play for her attention. It's more than attention he got, it was full-fledged attraction.
