Mediation is a vastly expanding area in the law. Many Courts and Judges encourage, and sometimes mandate, the use of Mediation. When a Judge or Jury decides a case, it is often a win-lose for the parties. In Mediation, or Alternative Dispute Resolution (“ADR”), the outcome can often be a win-win for both parties.

Mediation is a form of alternative dispute resolution that can be used in most non-criminal cases, including disputes involving contracts, leases, small businesses, employment, child custody, and divorce. In a successful mediation, all interested parties work cooperatively toward a settlement or fair resolution of their dispute, with the help of a neutral mediator who facilitates the process.
