Autopilot Upgrades - Sarasota Avionics

I have an H35 with an S-Tec 50 autopilot and manual trim. I also fly another aircraft with electric trim. Personally, I wouldn't spend the money or the weight on conversion to electric trim. It simply isn't that much trouble to manually trim the aircraft.

S-Tec 50 autopilot - ABS

Proposals for new autopilot upgrades can be shocking. Even entry-level wing-leveling systems start at $10,000, not including installation. But that won't buy much. Higher-end models with add-on options can easily snowball a project to $40,000. That's roughly the cost of an average engine replacement or an average Skyhawk.
