Someone Is Watching A Novel

“Someone Is Watching is a gripping, fast-paced psychological thriller reminiscent of Rear Window and the works of Lisa Gardner. Fielding has crafted a flawed yet likable heroine in Bailey by allowing her to experience the varied emotions of recovery instead of pigeonholing her as a helpless victim or bloodthirsty vigilante.

I ordered "Someone is Watching" on spec because the story seemed to be interesting. I'm glad I did and reacquainted myself with Joy Fielding because "Someone is Watching" is how she used to write when her books were so readable. I haven't finished the book as yet but I'm far enough advanced to say that it's up to her old standards of excellence.
