The Lion, the Lamb, the Hunted (TLTLTH) is a very well written novel with tension and suspense positively oozing from it's pages (well, my copy didn't have pages, I read it on Kindle, but you know what I mean). The characters are great, the plot is gripping and the twists were excellently executed.

The Lion, the Lamb, the Hunted by Andrew E. Kaufman

The Lion, The Lamb, The Hunted by Andrew E. Kaufman is one such book. An abused child grows to adulthood with essentially one question, which was why he was unlovable to his single parent mother. The good thing about his mother was that she was dead, but she continued to haunt her son, Patrick Bannister.
