a proud Muslim, there are chances that you might find the title above a bit disturbing. Because for many people in the world – especially in my part of the world – the word “capitalism” means nothing other than greed, exploitation or injustice. However, if capitalism merely means an economic system of private property, free enterprise and free markets, then there would be nothing “un-Islamic” about it, as the economic history of the ...

The terms of this debate are quite misleading. We live in an age, to adapt Barber's nomenclature, of "Mcjihad." It is an age in which the mechanisms of what we call capitalism appear to operate, in certain critical instances, only by adopting the social force and moral authority of conservative Islamic movements.
