When God Made Hell The

Answer: Hell is a place of suffering originally prepared by God for the devil and his angels (Matthew 18:9; 25:41). The words Hades (Greek) and Sheol (Hebrew) are sometimes associated with hell. However, Hades/Sheol is simply the place or realm where the spirits of people go when they die (see Genesis 37:35).

Fourth, God created hell for the devil and his angels. Matthew 25:41 states, "Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels." Two points: first, there was no point in creating this place of punishment before the devil and his angels rebelled; and ...

Therefore, the plain answer to "who" created hell is that hell is not created, as it is not a place but a state of being. Hell became real insofar as sin entered into what God created. Sin, as an offense against God and violation of His will, separates us from God.

Who created Hell? | St. Benedict Catholic Church, Duluth, MN

God created hell for those who choose sin instead of God. Let's discuss what God did not create hell for. To many, hell seems to exist to make us choose God out of fear. But we can see from God's nature - and the nature of His word - that He did not create hell to make us afraid. He tells Christians and other people hundreds of times ...
